

The Must List

6 CYRUS Indie darlings the Duplass brothers (Baghead) edge closer to the mainstream without sacrificing any of their charm in this sweetly strange R-rated movie. Jonah Hill stars as a 21-year-old son who's so attached to his mother (Marisa Tomei) that he'll do anything to thwart her new suitor (John C. Reilly).

8 SIR LUCIOUS LEFT FOOT: THE SON OF CHICO DUSTY, Big Boi Big Boi—one half of hip-hop's beloved OutKast—delivers a bold, funky solo debut that ranges from the stomping "General Patton" to the oh-so-smooth "Hustle Blood."

9 LUCY, by Laurence Gonzales Human-animal hybrids are often fodder for horror movies (see the recent film Splice). But this elegant sci-fi novel about a nice girl who's part chimp is a thoughtful, engrossing depiction of a scientific what-if.

10 THE GIRL WITH THE DRAGON TATTOO on DVD While you wait for the American film adaptation of Stieg Larsson's blockbuster novel, take home the thrilling Swedish version (rated R) and get a peek at how badass Lisbeth Salander really is.

7

Bruce Springsteen's LONDON CALLING: LIVE IN HYDE PARK

Last June, the Boss rocked a crowd of 50,000 Brits for three hours. This two-DVD set will let you experience the show, with its choice covers like the Clash's "London Calling."

Want more of the Must List? You can sample and download songs, buy movie tickets, see videos, and more with EW's Must List iPad app, available at iTunes.

CYRUS: CHUCK ALTONICK; SPRINGSTEEN: BOBBY BANK/INREIMAGE.COM; BIG BOI: GAY TAMARQA/GETTY IMAGES FOR BMI; THE GIRL WITH THE DRAGON TATTOO: KNUIT KOVISTO